Typical Daily Itinerary:

Day 1: Rendezvous in Dangriga Town 50 miles south of Belize City. Here you are met by your Island Expeditions representative and then travel by charter boat, 9 miles east to Tobacco Caye. Private transfers from Belize International Airport to Dangriga are also available on request. On arrival, settle into your oceanfront Cabana, enjoy lunch and then your personal guide will begin by teaching you the fundamentals of sea kayaking, snorkeling, and tropical water safety.

Accommodation: Tobacco Caye Paradise

Meals: Lunch, Dinner

Day 2-4: Each day your activity choices are flexible to accommodate what you'd like to do... Activities include paddling, snorkeling the inner and outer walls of the reef, stand-up paddleboarding learning to sail a kayak, and fishing. Scuba can be arranged but is not included. (Please let us know in advance). Your guide will provide you with activity options each morning and afternoon and is always available to you for a sunset or sunrise paddle, a night snorkel or some intertidal exploration. Your guide will inspire you with casual informative discussions on Belize history, its unique marine ecosystem, local culture, and stories. And hey There are lots of opportunities to simply kick back in a hammock, a cold drink, and a good book!

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Day 5: Many guests choose to wake up early on this final morning and have a leisurely coffee on the dock. You may want to watch the sunrise over the reef wall, then enjoy a hearty breakfast and get out on a paddleboard one last time. Your charter boat departs around mid-morning to take you back to the mainland arriving in Dangriga late morning. Travel note: For travelers who will be leaving Belize on Day 5, We will coordinate your boat schedule to connect with your personal logistics. To connect with international departures from Belize a short domestic flight may be required from Dangriga to Belize International Airport (BZE). Our office can confirm current pricing and book your arrangements. Flight & Hotel Packages are also available.
