The Maya Moho River Expeditions is our most adventurous trip yet; it takes you off-grid and into the wilderness, far from the usual tourist path. Its varied itinerary explores Belize's vibrant cultures, tropical rainforests, wild rivers, and remote villages.

Typical Daily Itinerary:

Day 1: We meet in the seaside town of Dangriga and then travel overland to Bocawina Rainforest Lodge in the foothills of the Maya Mountains. Tonight we dine for dinner at the acclaimed Wild Fig restaurant, and meet our fellow travelers, meet your guides and go over the plan for the following day.

Accommodation: Bocawina Rainforest Resort

Meals: Dinner

Day 2: From Bocawina we travel south, into the Mayan homeland of Belize, an area of rich indigenous culture and stunning scenery. We have lunch in the Village of Santa Teresa, and learn how the modern Maya people live in this very special part of the country. Next, we head westward towards the Guatemala border to the river put in point. We gather our gear, and pump up our boats. Your guides teach the skills you need to confidently paddle your inflatable kayak in moving water before starting our journey down Belize's most beautiful rainforest rivers. We reach the first camp before dark, and set up for a spectacular night at the river's edge.

Accommodation: Jungle River Camp

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Day 3: Wake to a tropical rainforest setting in the Moho River Valley that feels straight out of a storybook, as we follow the Moho River through canyons and lush rainforest. Each bend reveals the dynamic nature of the river with calm meandering sections and stretches of exciting rapids and chutes. Our evenings along the river include storytelling and night walks in the jungle.

Accommodation: Jungle River Camp

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Day 4: In the morning, as we descend out of the Maya Mountains the river changes its nature, widens and begins to meander into the coastal plains. Paddling through forests of fig trees laden with Iguana, and we slowly reach farm lands of the local Maya People. Upon reaching the main bridge of the Moho River, our vehicle awaits and we shuttle to the village of Jordan for our final meal with the indigenous people of Belize. After lunch, we return northward on the Southern Highway. We reach Dangriga by 3pm to connect with a flight or alternative arrangements.

Accommodation: Bocawina Rainforest Resort

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch
